

Family Forum 11/12/2020 Q&A

#	Question	Answer(s)
1	Does the fact that Staten Island has been identified by NYS as a "yellow zone" affect or restrict the ongoing day-hab activities? The reason for my question is that my son Anthony's residence has just imposed restrictions on visitors, etc., and we decided to bring him home in order to have him continue attending his day hab program at the Greenhouse.	Please reference our website www.lfdsi.org and visit our Covid-19 Information page. Choose the Day Services Closure Plan
2	Will you send the covid testing requirements to the group homes	The residences have been given the same guidances as us, but yes the bright arrows and letters will go home weekly. Also the RNs are in touch with the residential RNs.
3	we cant hear well what does orange and yellow mean? thank you	The red, orange and yellow requirements are listed on our website lfdsi.org under the covid info tab. Choose the Day Services Closure Plan. But please feel free to call.
4	How many negative results are required in order to return to program? Thank you	Generally one negative close to the end of the 14 days should be ok
5	Sorry That is if someone has a positive test result	If positive the retest should come at or near the end of the 14 days. That way if negative you will know it is ok to return
6	For the families who are not interesred in coming to program for now, will all Zoom programs continue?	Zoom is still as active as ever...so yes please join
7	As soon as possible can you noitfy us of Lifestyle's holiday schedule...time off?	All Scheduled Holiday closures can be found on the Day Habilitation Calendar on our website www.lfdsi.org under the Calendar Tab.